Literary Legacies of Macon County and Tuskegee: Zora Neale Hurston, Ralph Ellison and Albert Murray

"When I discover
who I am, I'll be free."

"The Blues is not the creation of a
crushed-spirited people. It is the product of a
forward looking,
upward-striving
people."

This workshop has been designed for K-12 educators who seek to include the literature of Alabama Hall of Fame writers Ralph W. Ellison and Albert Murray into their curriculum. Lesson plans and best practices will be a part of this interactive workshop that will also explore music, history and geography associated with selected literary works. Participants will also screen excerpts of a new documentary on AfricaTown, located in southern Alabama. Participants will receive books and $125.
