FOREWORD

Nothing can arouse a feeling so pleasant as a fond memory. A few moments of reflection and we live anew amid scenes that were both touching and tender to us. Tuskegee has crowded into our lives many such memories. They will be a source of inspiration to us in the future. In order that we might always have a spark to light a chain of thought leading to these memories, we present the Nineteen Forty-eight TUSKEANA.

Dedication

To the United Nations Assembly, the Class of 1948, Tuskegee Institute, dedicates this book as an expression of our appreciation for the work in which they are engaged, trying to make this a better world in which to live — One World United.

UNITED

"Now, more than ever before, every nation has a vital stake in the establishment of a stable and prosperous international order. I am more than ever convinced that the United Nations can, and should, be a place where the combined common sense and determination of the peoples will find its voice and take a real part in the framing of the future of mankind."

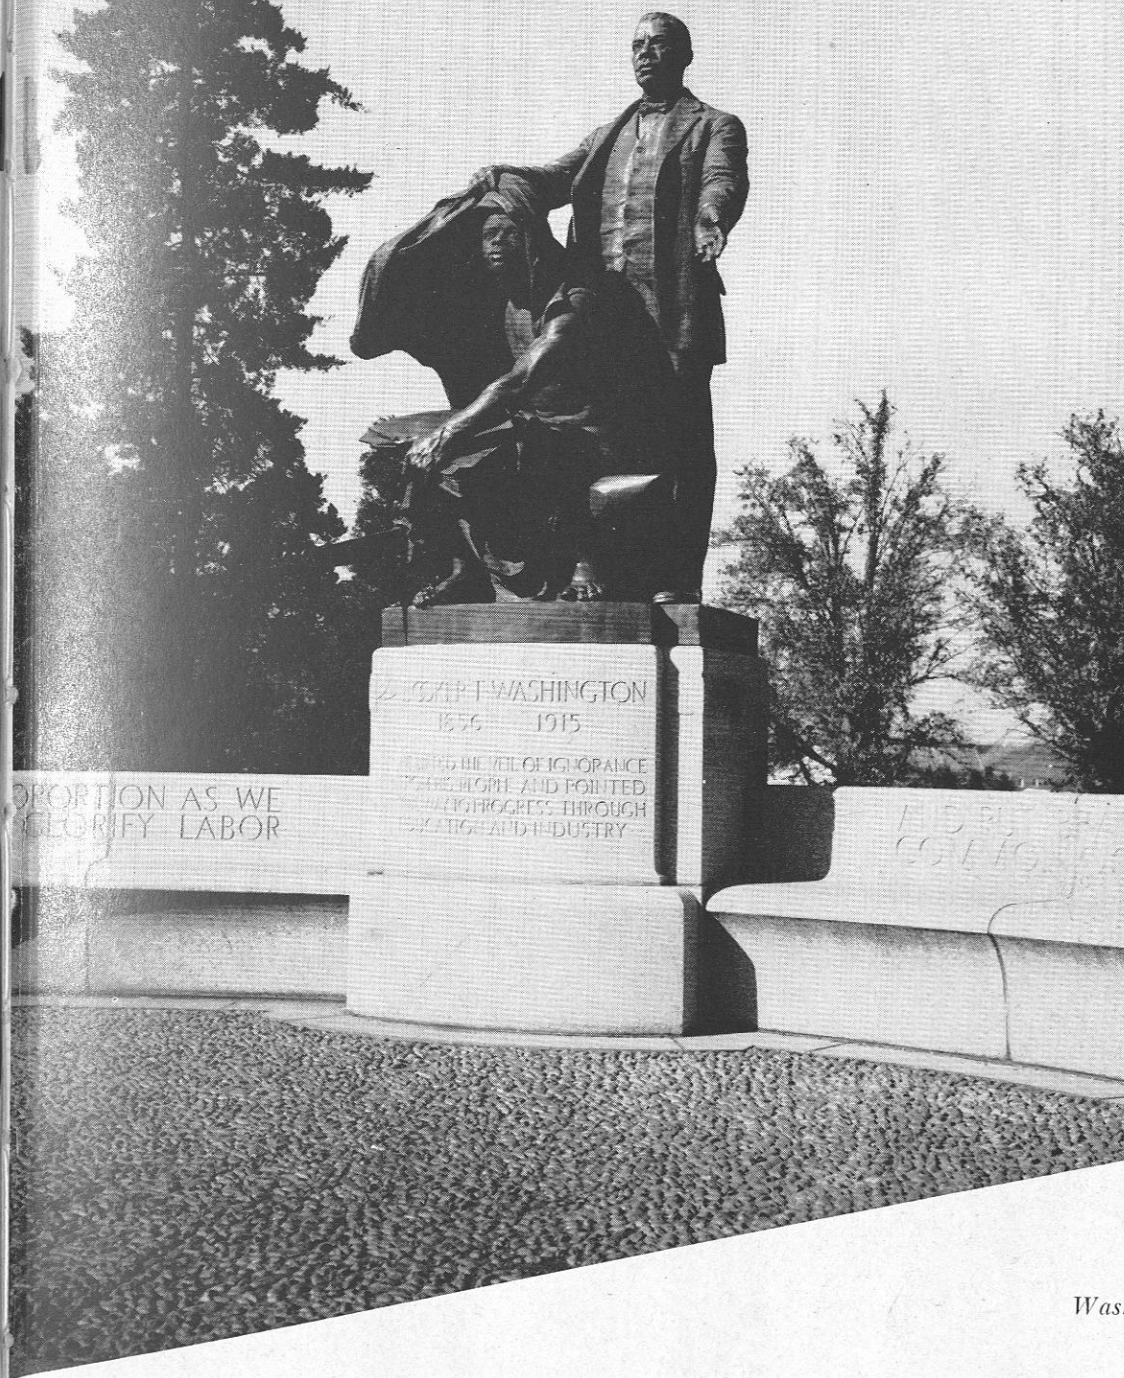

TRYGVE LIE,
Secretary-General

CAMPUS and ADMINISTRATION

Mose B. Thomas

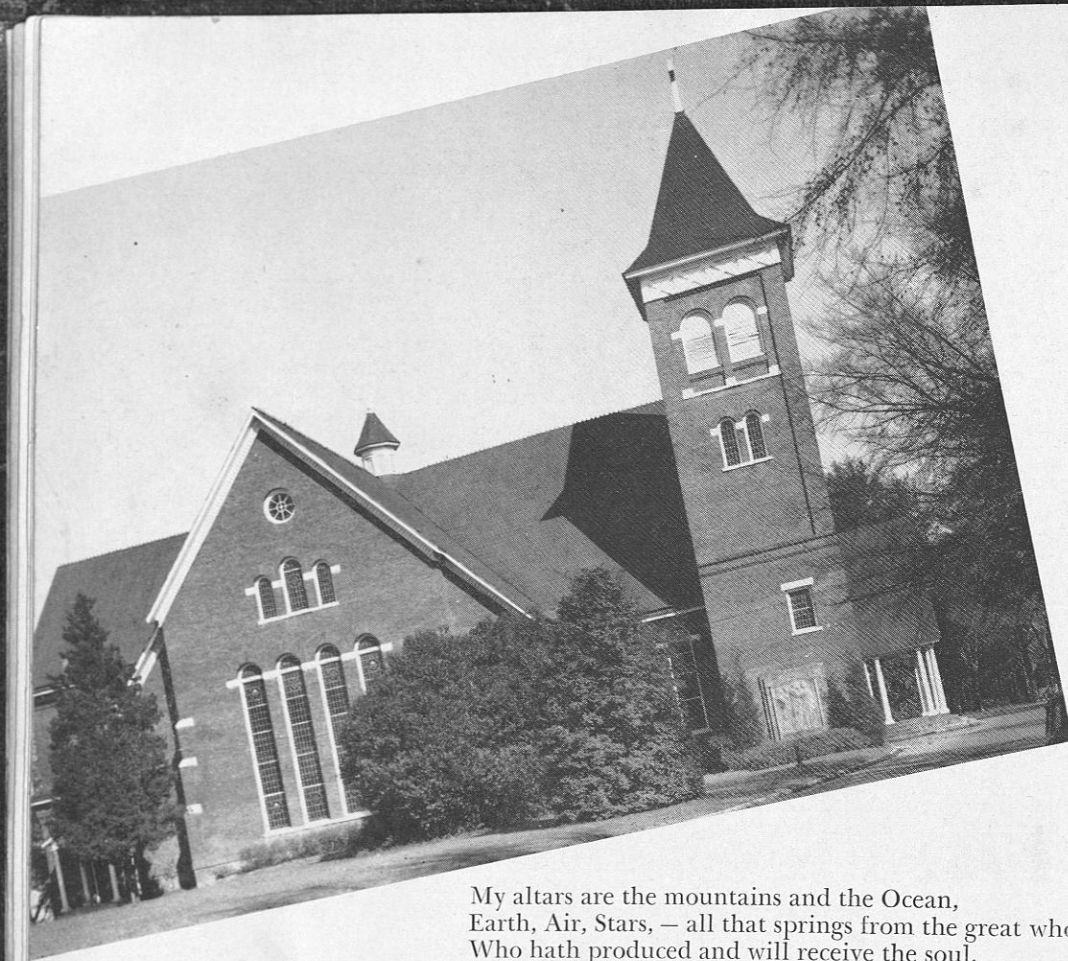

Washington Moument

We shall prosper in proportion as we learn to dignify and glorify labor and put brains and skill into the common occupations of life.

—BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

Institute Chapel

My altars are the mountains and the Ocean,
Earth, Air, Stars, — all that springs from the great whole,
Who hath produced and will receive the soul.

—DON JAUN BYRON

Taking food and drink is a great enjoyment for healthy people, and those who do not enjoy eating seldom have much capacity for enjoyment or usefulness of any sort.

—CHARLES W. ELIOT

Tompkins Dining Hall

The President's Home

A comfortable house is a great source of happiness.
It ranks immediately after health and a good conscience.

—SIDNEY SMITH

Art is the path of the creator to his work.

—EMERSON

Huntington Hall

Logan Hall

Straining breaks
the bow, and relaxation relieves the mind.
—PUBLILIUS SYRUS

Armstrong Hall

Science, when well digested, is nothing but good sense and reason.
—STANISLAUS

Carnegie Hall

Music, the greatest good that mortals know,
And all of heaven
we have below.
—ADDISON

John A. Andrew Hospital

We wish him health; he sighs for rest, and heaven accepts the prayer.
—JOHN KEBLE

Nurses' Home

Time comes with the morning and rest with the night.

—LONGFELLOW

White Hall

The end and the reward of toil is rest.

—JAMES BEATTLE

Dorothy Hall

While we are asleep, we are all equal.

—CERVANTES

Sage Hall

Sweet are the slumbers of the virtuous man.

—ADDISON

Milbank Agricultural Building

The first farmer was the first man, and all historic nobility rests on possession and use of land.

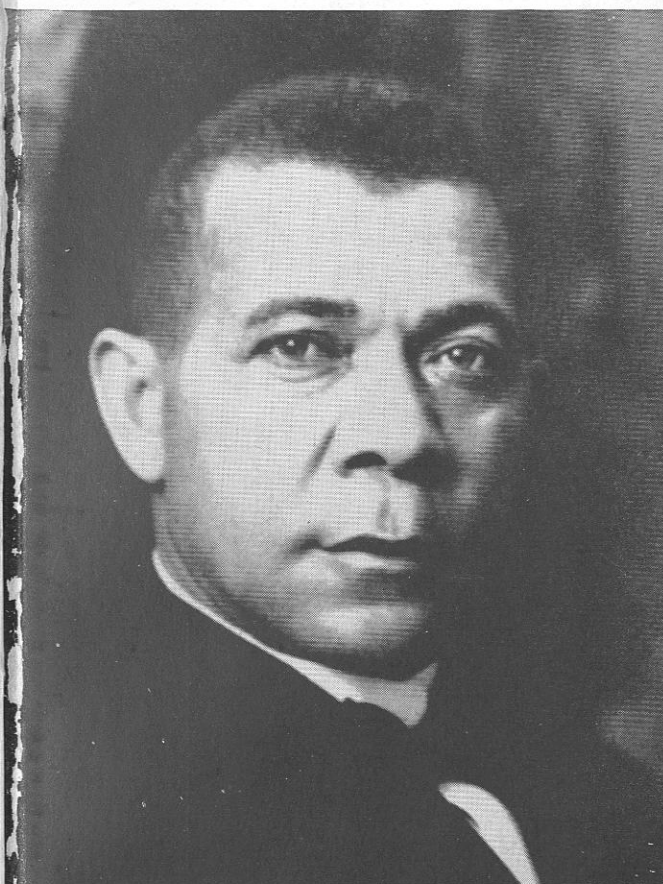

—EMERSON

Trades A Building

Who does not teach his child a trade or profession brings him up to steal.

—EMERSON

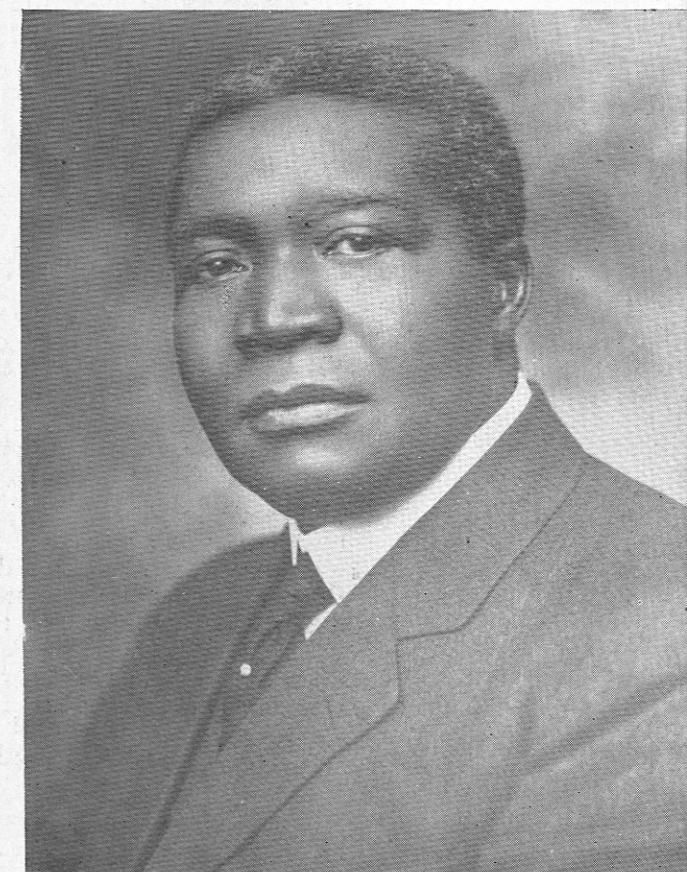

DR. BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

"What more doth the Lord require of thee than to do Justice, Love and Mercy and walk humbly with thy God."

As nearly as any man, Booker T. Washington lived up to this verse. He was endowed with endurance, determination and courage which enabled him to grow, enlarge in power, in strength and in soul until he became the great spirit that we love and honor. Dr. Washington will grow greater in the minds of men with every year which separates them from life.

DR. ROBERT RUSSA MOTON

Dr. Robert Russa Moton—educator, author and humanitarian. Dr. Moton ably upheld the standards of Dr. Washington when the principalship of Tuskegee was placed upon his shoulders. He measured up to the great honor and prodigious responsibility which were passed to him. He possessed those qualifications which count most valuable in a Negro leader. Dr. Moton had faith in his people and believed in his fellow man.

OUR PRESIDENT

DR. FREDERICK DOUGLAS PATTERSON

Young, energetic, resolute, Frederick Douglas Patterson, third President of Tuskegee Institute, began a new era in the institute's history. On the foundation laid by his predecessors, Dr. Patterson developed and reorganized Tuskegee Institute in accordance with the modern needs and precepts of education, maintaining the integral aims and traditions of the school. Educator, leader, humanitarian, Frederick Douglas Patterson is today the epitome of that unselfish devotion, service, and leadership that since the beginning of time, has contributed to the cause of the common good and the betterment of man.

CLASS HISTORY

In the past years, happenings have been recorded, and many events have remained indelible in our minds. There have been so many ways of travel through the ages that it is not surprising to say that this class of '48 has had speed like that of the rocket.

The rocket in the year 1943 was more or less an experiment and had not yet reached its fullest development. Perhaps it would not be wrong to say that the Freshman Class of 1944-45 was also an experiment, for were we not just beginning our college career, and did we not have three years ahead of us before we would reach our fullest development? As with all experiments, there were times of bitter disappointments. We, like the rocket, which has a pilot, also had guidance. Mr. J. J. Flood was our adviser and our capable officers were Grover Bullock, president, and Elnita T. Mayberry, secretary.

It's rather nice to remember that we were dubbed the "Almighty Freshmen" and that we lived up to it, for we made a grand showing in everything we undertook. We made noteworthy contributions to the Red Cross and the United Negro College Fund, and we worked exceedingly well in other drives that help the human race.

Having tried the first experiment of college, many tried again for the second year of "bumps and slidings" (as must have been the case in developing the rocket). The year 1945-46 had, of course, a few changes. Transfer students were added, and many veterans returned; these additions increased our enrollment considerably. The adviser for the year was the Reverend Raymond T. Harvey, and the officers were Grover Bullock, president; Isaac Porter, vice president; Harriet Hutchinson, secretary; Pauline Weathersby, assistant secretary; Sheldon Phillips, treasurer; and Perry Rosh, sergeant-at-arms. Larleitta Crockett and Emma Arnold represented the class on the Institute Council.

During this year the class really displayed its extra-curricular abilities. We entered every school activity that was made available to us. We were represented on the Campus Digest staff and in the Little Theatre, Institute Choir, Rifle Team, social and religious clubs and many other organizations. Bobbie Goodson was crowned "Miss Sophomore."

It was in 1946-47 that we united to work toward the end of the experiment—graduation. Perhaps the junior year was the most difficult, but nevertheless we conquered it. We now had Dr. J. E. Fuller as adviser, and officers on this experimental tour were John W. Young, president; Tyree Felder, vice-president; Harriet Hutchinson, secretary; Larleitta Crockett, assistant secretary; William Surcey, business manager; and Pernell Wilder, sergeant-at-arms. Institute Council representatives were Emma Arnold and Russell Kirkpatrick.

It seemed no time at all before the Junior-Senior Prom was just around the corner, and we were in a dither making preparations for the long-prayed-for prom, where the young women could show off their most fanciful evening dresses and the men could look their handsomest in their formal attire. On April 29, 1947, the prom was held in full swing, everyone looking his best and having a good time. The scheme of decoration was extremely exotic. Above the dance floor hung a canopy of spring color streamers, which were blended into a unique spiral pattern. In the center of the floor was a fountain that sent a stream of water several inches high. The improvisation of trees and foliage completed the scenery of the uniquely decorated hall. Music for the affair was furnished by the Fisk University Swing Band directed by Robert N. Felder, brother of the President of the Junior Class, Booker T. Felder.

During this year, the Little Theatre sponsored a play, "The Show-off," in which Phillip Raymond, Victor Morris and Hazel Scruggs had important roles.

It should not be forgotten that thirty-five of the students who made the Dean's list were from this class. The requirements for the honor were a "B" average or more and good standing with the school. Seven of the thirty-five are members of the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society of which Phillip Raymond is president; Rosie Lockett, secretary-treasurer; and Georgiana Evans, assistant secretary-treasurer. This year Miss Sereeta Hymes was chosen "Miss Junior."

The probabilities are that passengers will not travel in rockets until the projectiles have been fully developed for carrying mail and express. Some daring adventurer may then undertake to ride, with such precaution for his comfort and safety as he may be able to manage. Just as passengers prepared themselves for the ride in the rocket, we also prepared ourselves for the undertaking of the last "go round" in college. The minimum requirements were to maintain a level head and to keep our noses to the grindstone.

Here, too, was the pilot's great job of rethe extra fuel their passage required. Dr. J. E. assuring the passengers as they began to earn Fuller still had the responsibility of nursing the last yard of the distance out of the glide to bring the seniors as gently as an angel to its birth at the waiting port of graduation.

This time we had the following as our leaders: Booker T. Felder, president; Pernell G. Wilder, vice president; Harriet Hutchinson, secretary; Louise Yelverton, corresponding secretary; Richard Cobb, treasurer; Claude George, financial secretary; Essie Summers, reporter; Russell Kirkpatrick, business manager; and John Dickerson, parliamentarian. To represent us on the Institute Council were Claude George, Clement Bronson, and Quentin Gal-laird. Miss Johnnye Valien was chosen "Miss Senior."

We now had other responsibilities to accept, for as seniors the faculty felt that we were capable of performing certain duties not handled by students before. Our first assignment was the publication of the Homecoming Souvenir Programs. On this occasion Florida A. & M. College was our guest. The TUSKEANA Staff worked diligently to turn out the best book in years, with the helpful advice and patient laboring of its adviser, Mr. A. L. Holsey, and its class adviser, Dr. J. E. Fuller.

The Senior Welfare Committee, of which William Surcey was chairman, sponsored several discussions beneficial to seniors, one on "Manners Today," led by Miss Queen E. Shootes and another, "Parenthood," led by Miss Mary Langford of the Planned Parenthood Association.

In our senior year we found that we were most victorious in playing football because of the splendid work of Whitney Van Cleve, All-American of 1946, Claude George, Allison Figaro, Jesse Bolden, George Davis, Charles Mayes and Charles Gray.

In basketball, we had such stars as Calvin Jones, Claude George and Whitney Van Cleve.

This was the year when "Miss Tuskegee '48" was to be chosen from our class. Bobbie L. Goodson won the contest by a very small margin over Ruthie Bolden. Other candidates were Grace Watson and Geraldine Clausell. Miss Goodson was also crowned Queen of the May.

The senior young women honored the senior men and faculty with a dance, "The White Ball," on April 16, 1948, in Logan Hall. This occasion was one that will always be remembered. All young women wore white evening gowns, and young men were dressed in black and white formal attire. The music was sweet and was enjoyed by all.

We had a great representation of queens during the Home Coming Celebration. They were as follows: Miss Physical Education, Elaine Bradford; Miss Nyx, Ruthie Bolden; Miss Rho Delta Sigma, Wenona Collins; Miss Semper Fidelis, Sereeta Hymes; Miss KiYi, Johnnie Jordan; Miss C. D., Mildred McGowan; Miss Home Economics, Future Trammell.

We, already like the fast-moving plane, the rocket, will increase our velocity and zoom forth to the final destination—graduation.

BOOKER T. FELDER

CLASS SONG

Tune: "Jerusalem the Golden"

Tuskegee, dear, we love thee!
 Your name throughout the land
 Shall reign supreme wherever
 Thy children, dear, shall stand.
 We love our Alma Mater;
 We love our teachers, too;
 We love all of the things that
 They have tried to do.

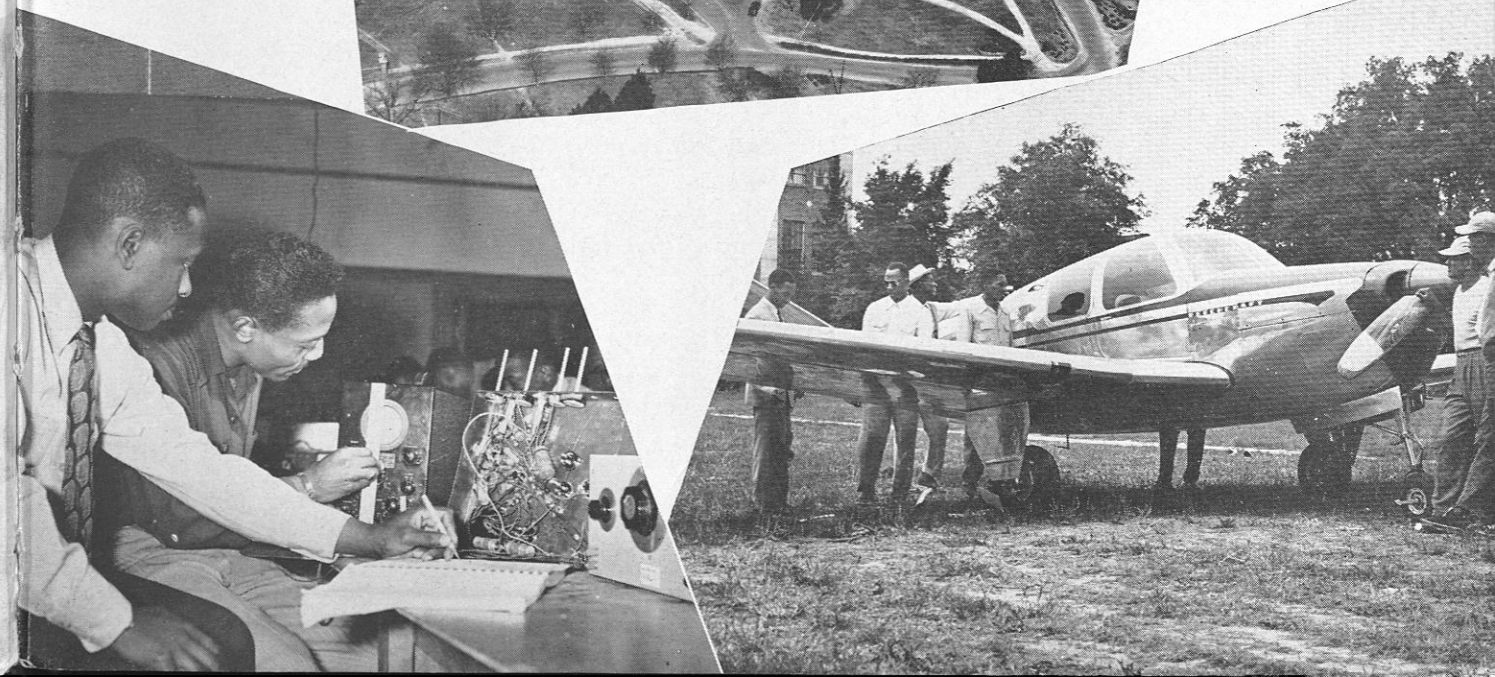

We have the joy and honor
 Of strolling down the walks
 To find someone as friendly,
 As friendly as can be.
 The trees that spread their arms
 Across the streets with care
 Have added to our learning
 Of things we hold so dear.

We've liked the inspiration
 Of choirs from far and near,
 But there were never choirs
 That sang like our choir here.
 The "Chancel Windows" too, helped,
 Have helped from day to day,
 When our paths were so very dark
 We could not see the way.

Tuskegee, dear, Tuskegee,
 Go on and spread thy light
 To children throughout the land
 Who wish to use their hands
 Technically and professionally right.
 In sincere appreciation
 To those who have struggled here,
 We lift our heads and spread abroad
 The things we hold so dear.

ONE WORLD AT TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE

Those who today are striving to build a "One World" for tomorrow may learn much from the Tuskegee Institute community. Those of us here at Tuskegee who have traveled extensively have undoubtedly observed that in no other community or institution do people of so many different races and countries mingle as do visitors and friends at Tuskegee Institute. Considering this fact, the question arises: Why is this so? If asked this question, the romantic poet would probably have answered, "Nature always presents her pattern prior to any worthy accomplishment." Her pattern of a "One World" is the Tuskegee Institute community. The predestinarian or fatalist of yesteryear would probably have answered, "This was in the plan; it was predestined," or "This is an act of fate." And he would have been perfectly right. But those of us who would have this Tuskegee spirit to inject into a one-world, those of us who would dare analyze this invaluable and commutable quality of Tuskegee Institute in terms of what man has done to help bring it about, and, of what man and especially Tuskegeans can do to perpetuate a "One World," would answer: "This quality is the fruit from a seed planted a generation ago by a great man, a firm believer in the good found in all people, a lover of people." His fruit shall grow as long as Tuskegee Institute shall live.

Yes, we know that nature always presents her pattern. Long before a piece of mechanism was invented, the animal organism was functioning; before the electric light was conceived the sun, moon and stars were shining; and before the invention of explosives there were erupting volcanoes. The fact that congeniality is a part of Tuskegee Institute assures one that it was meant to be. In order to appreciate this congeniality let us study three of Doctor Washington's quotations, each one of which reveals his unselfish concern for all human beings, and his fervent desire to have all live in a "One World." They are as follows:

"I will let no man drag me down so low as to make me hate him."

"There is no defense or security for any of us except in the highest intelligence and development of all."

"Let down your buckets where you are."

The first quotation implies a fact of which we are all aware, that if there is to be a "One World" there must exist in it little or no hate between individuals, between states, between nations and between races; because hatred corrupts the states, the nations, the races, and the whole world.

We have a living example of quotation number two in the struggle of true Americans and other citizens of the world to elevate Europe and other war-torn sections to the level of the more fortunate areas. Let us hope that on completing this task, the American citizens will concentrate just as much effort in effecting social equality and justice. But let it not be said that this elevation is being entirely neglected at the present time. We need only to observe the growth of Tuskegee Institute and the increasing prestige of its faculty and graduates to realize that the day is near when there will be only a minimum of oppressed people.

Quotation three tells us that we, you and I, the builders of a "One World" for tomorrow, should follow the method of the constructor, who excavates his land, lays a solid foundation, and then builds toward the sky, or the method of the aviator, who courses along his own field to acquire force, and then flies to heaven knows where.

Yes, in order for any of us to realize the fruits of a "One World," all of us must move with a determined effort to stamp out hatred, to promote high intelligence in others. In doing this every individual must do the part nearest him first and then branch out in the more distant areas. These things, in a great part, we have accomplished at Tuskegee Institute; and the results are noticeable to all who linger here for any extended period of time. Those of us entering other communities must now aim at communicating this spirit of Tuskegee Institute to all with whom we come in contact.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1948

222 Lincoln Drive
Boley, Oklahoma
May 10, 1958

Dear Mary McCorvey,

It seems like ages since I have seen you. The last time we were together was at our graduation from Tuskegee in 1948. The reminiscence of our college days brings back memories of sadness, excitement, joy and love. Being a globe trotter, you have probably lost contact with your fellow classmates; therefore, I assume that you should be very much interested in their whereabouts.

Freddie Smith is operator of the Campus Grille, Tuskegee Institute, Alabama. Serving as her assistant is Mrs. Willie Swails, the former Mary Scott. Isiah Porter, Ola Maxie and Marie Ike are dietitians at Fleichmann's Baking Laboratory School. The Wimberly sisters, Dollie and Addie, are operating a very exclusive lunch counter in Waterloo, Mississippi.

I received a letter from Mary Henry, which stated that she is to speak in the Institute Chapel next Sunday. She has revolutionized the old-type orphans' home, and I understand that her Elizabeth's Training Center is very progressive. In her letter she mentioned that Buena Powell is the author of the textbook, The Child and the Curriculum, and that Cleopatra Daniels, who is known for numerous and varied case studies of children's works, is with her.

I have just finished reading the book, Don't Wait Too Late, by Dr. Pauline Weathersby, Columbia University. I understand also that Mercedes Hitson is having her book, The Joys of Married Life, published next month.

Perhaps you have heard of Booker T. Felder, a famous designer in Paris. His wife, the former Hazel Scruggs, is his perfect model. In his last letter to me, he was seeking the whereabouts of Cordella Hill, as he would like to use her as a stand-in for his wife. I don't suppose he has heard that Cordella is now the wife of Murville J. Douglas, who is completing a thirty-six month engagement at the New York Opera House.

What do you think about this? Agnita Turner has married her great love, "Scoboo," and has three sets of twins, Pete and Repete, Flate and Inflate, and Brawl and Crawl. Bessie Hill, Audrey Langford, Josie Bend, Florence Blackman and Alice Crowell are show girls on Broadway. Clement Bronson has given up his career in Agriculture and is a renowned lawyer in Jackson, Mississippi.

Future Trammell and William Surcey are married and have settled very peacefully in Jacksonville, Florida. While William keeps the cars in good condition, Future has a time keeping their four sons. The Exclusive Tailor Shop in St. Louis, Missouri, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Lenoard Small (the latter was formerly Dorothy Womack) has been closed for two months. The owners are in a convalescent home recovering from a nervous breakdown.

I was happy to read the new Tuskegee Bulletin and to find the following persons on the faculty: Harriet Hutchinson, Secretary to the President; Quenton Gaillard, Dean of the School of Agriculture; Richard Carr, instructor in the Tailoring Division; Leodies Arburtha, Head of the Printing Division; Annie Allen, dancing instructor; and Velma Williams, Head of the Home Economics Department. Velma, after having married two senators and one minister, has decided to marry her childhood lover.

Rosa Lockett has received her Ph. D. in Chemistry and has begun a series of experiments on Alabama's native products.

Miss Johnnie Valien is now Miss America of 1958.

On my way to New York last week, I met Hugh Watson, who is traveling salesman for the Watson Department Store. After arriving in New York, I found that Bobbie Goodson is Dean of the Pratt Institute Designing School.

Our class has produced quite a few models. Jodye Stevenson is a model for Nylon Hosiery Company; Carmyn Morrow is a model for Vogue Magazine; Bernice Stephens is with Goldstein Designers, and Gertrude Jefferson is Hair Stylist for Max Factor in Hollywood.

A party was given at the "Ritz" last night in honor of Larleitta Crockett, who is now replacing the retired Lena Horne. The party was a great success. At first I was unable to recognize the director of the orchestra because of the haze of soft lights and cigarette smoke. However, at a closer glance I discovered her to be none other than Etheldra Mackel, who has recorded some of the hottest numbers out. Louise Reese, Clyde Williams, Freeman Davis, Amos Kirk and Annie Rogan were among those present. It was a gala affair, the memories of which leave a golden hue.

Curvin Hollimon, President of Tuskegee Institute, was surprised to meet Dorothy Wingfield and Helen Lee at the Meharry Medical Hospital. They are head nurses there.

When in Ohio a few weeks ago, I ran into Anna Chadwell Wright carrying her daughter to Mrs. Pryor's Nursery School. Mrs. Pryor is the former Jessie Maddox. Emma Arnold is a famous novelist there and has been awarded the Nobel Prize for 1958.

Johnnie Jordan is math instructor at Parker High School. Phillip Raymond is owner of the Raymond Department Stores in Doo Little, Mississippi. Geraldine Clausell is librarian at New York University and is soon to be Mrs. Alvin Stephens. Bernice Hardy has been chosen as the best-dressed woman of 1958.

I have just received a letter requesting our support of the "Mission to Mars" campaign. It was signed by Mrs. Mozell Williams Gibson, president of the Woman's Club, Gary, Indiana.

Edith Shockley is author of the book, How to Get Your Man and Hold Him.

Russell Kirkpatrick has been called to Russia to experiment on his new system of radiant heat. Elaine Bradford is now instructor of swimming at Goodnight, Mississippi.

Whitney Van Cleve is head coach at Fine Fry High School in Alabama. He has as his assistants Charlotte Ivory and Frederick Kennedy.

Annie King and Richard Cobb are married and are living in Dova, Alabama. They are the proud parents of three sets of twins. Vera Plaxico is now employed as money-checker in the Treasury Department in the nation's capitol and lives in one of Mautez Glover Wilson's apartments. Mrs. Bessie Summers is now teaching the seventh and eighth grades at Sambo, Georgia.

Virgie Etherly Blankenship, entertainer at Copa Blanca Night Club, is on her way to Reno to get her fifth divorce. It is rumored that in the near future she will marry her present employer, the owner of the club. Miss Elnita Mayberry has given up nursing and is entertaining at the club until Mrs. Blankenship's return.

John Dickerson is chief of an internationally famous detective bureau.

A school specifically for institutional management students has been established in Oakland, California, by Mildred McGowan. Instructing there are Isaac Crawford, Hermine Clark, Orian Bailey and LaFrantz Steele. All have their doctor's degrees in Foods.

Victor Morris is now commandant of the military units at Howard University. He recently returned from Europe where he won four wars.

Julia McKinney has just completed an illustrated guide to Home Economics for the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The rosiness of life is sometimes faded by misfortune. Nature played a prank on the citizens here by causing a sudden change in the climatic conditions. Believe it or not, it became very cold, causing the ground to be very slippery after a rainfall. While walking down the street, I slipped and sprained my wrist. I was carried to the local hospital and given first aid treatment by Lois A. Cooke. In a very docile manner she told me that I should have been more careful. Cookie is still the same, but she makes a wonderful nurse.

Randolph Silas, President of West Virginia State College, and his two aides, Pernel Wilder and John Young, were seen at the Tuskegee-Wilberforce game in Chicago last year. Silas stated that Doris Baccus was registrar and Minola Dayton, his secretary there.

A beautiful picture becomes visible before my eyes as I write this letter. I see our classmates, whom I mentioned, performing creditably their tasks in the various fields which they have chosen in life.

I do hope you will enjoy reading this letter as much as I have enjoyed writing it.

Yours truly,

SEREETTA HYMES.

CLASS POEM

Words by HARRIET M. HUTCHINSON

Dear ole Tuskegee, our hearts are filled with deep regret
Of having to leave thee, but we shall ne'er forget
The many hours we spent from day to day
Within these walls where we found our way.
Yes, thou has been our strong defender,
And the teachings you did render.
So shall your light be our guiding star
Upon the end of our journey far.

Dear ole Tuskegee, we've come to the end of four perfect years,
No more heartaches, no more fears,
Only to cherish these memories dearly
Of our teachers and friends who helped us sincerely.
For we struggled and labored and were faithful and bold,
And the gain we've accomplished is far more than gold.
So to thee, ole Tuskegee, you shall forever dwell
In the hearts of this class who bids you farewell, farewell.

CLASS WILL

STATE OF ALABAMA
COUNTY OF MACON

CITY OF TUSKEGEE
May 10, 1948

We, the class of 1948, realizing that we are to pass from this phase of education in full possession of a well-trained memory and a crammed mind, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby reyoking and making void all former wills heretofore made in an idle hour.

As to such estate as it has pleased the Fates and our own capable hands and brains to win for us, we do dispose of the same as follows:

ARTICLE 1. In an attempt at partial payment for all that he has done for us during our long years at Tuskegee, we give and bequeath to our beloved president, Dr. Patterson, a heavy mortgage on our future in the Great Unknown. It shall be his privilege to watch every step of our upward and onward climb—our trials and victories—and to accept for himself every ounce of the praise, every iota of the honor, knowing that our achievements are due to his faithful leadership.

ARTICLE 2. To our school we pledge our most sincere love, loyalty and devotion.

ARTICLE 3. To our deans, who have offered such helpful guidance, we bequeath our most sincere love, and hope that they will be as helpful to the classes in the years to come as they have been to us.

ARTICLE 4. To our adviser, for his cooperative spirit and his willingness to lend his time and energy to the welfare of this class, we bequeath a high degree of love, loyalty and respect.

ARTICLE 5. To the dear faculty, who, without becoming discouraged, have been so helpful to and interested in us through our vicissitudes, we give and bequeath our undying love and devotion.

ARTICLE 6. To the members of the Junior Class, we bequeath our dignity and our seats in chapel.

ARTICLE 7. To the members of the Sophomore Class, we bequeath the ability to face and overcome all tasks which will confront them before graduation.

ARTICLE 8. To the members of the Freshman Class, we bequeath the courage to endure any obstacle which they might encounter before becoming Seniors.

ARTICLE 9. The following may seem trifling bequests, but we hope they may be accepted, not as worthless things lavishly thrown away, but as valuable assets to those who may receive them, and as continual reminders of the generosity of heart displayed in our bestowal:

I, Edward V. Anthony, Jr., will the ability to work on the clock system to George E. Smith.

I Erma L. Muldrow, will my winsome personality and my refined ladylike qualities to Margo Fletcher and Delores Williams.

I, Vera Plaxico, will to Dorothy Hicks my position as student assistant to the business officer of the hospital.

I, Velma J. Williams, will to Mary B. Hutchinson a portion of my big face.

I, Future M. Trammell, will my pleasant but calm personality to Azalie Savage.

I, Etheldra L. Mackel, will my ability to keep my white saddle oxfords clean to Doris Allen and my musical ability to Joseph (Smoothstuff) Johnston.

I, George G. Sims, will to William Merritt the vast Electronic Field for his experimentation.

I, Isadore Roberson, will to Archie Walker my title, the Duke, and my ability to keep cool.

I, L. Lowell Byrd, do hereby will my executive ability and my ability to direct a choral group to Mr. Lucian Howard.

I, Annie Mae Allen, will to Lois Holliday my winning personality.

I, Annie Dorel King, will to Doris Smith Education 401.

I, Grace Elna Watson, hereby will my name, Cool Mama, to Miss Joan McLemore.

I, A. Winifred Hamilton, will my title, Senior Woman, to Miss Meadowlark Jackson.

I, Freeman W. Davis, will to Robert Clanton my ability to stay at Tuskegee Institute four years and to stay out of trouble.

I, Emilie L. Arnold, hereby will my place in the Delta Pyramid Club to Daisy Jane Pugh.

I, William S. Surcey, will to Robert W. Drye my shower shoes, a half bottle of shaving lotion and one tennis ball.

I, Booker T. Felder, will to Raymond McIntyre my tailoring ability; to Arthur Graves, my title, Most Likeable Senior; and to the Editor of TUSKEANA '49, my dummy copy of TUSKEANA '48.

I, Mautez Glover, will to Luiuana Wright my position in the Girls Drill Corps, provided she "Keep the right step and square all corners."

I, Elnita Mayberry, will my seat in the Tuskegee Institute Choir to Miss Josephine Austin.

I, Evelyn S. Johnson, will my pleasing personality to Mary White.

I, Johnella Smith, will my ability to stay calm in all situations to Ruth Spencer.

I, Virgie Etherly, will to Vivian Pugh my ability to utilize the natural resources.

I, Doris M. Cole, will my perseverance to Dorothy Hicks, and my title, Most Efficient and Zealous in Home Economics, to Norvella Ward.

I, Randolph Silas, will my position in Dr. T. R. Brett's office to Archie Walker.

I, June M. Bennett, will to Anita Williams both my musical ability and my cheerful smile.

I, Gladys A. Wilson, do hereby will to Mozetta Alford my conscientiousness and my ability to win friends and keep them for four years.

I, Florence Hill, will to Jacquelin Hatter the use of the typewriter in the Education office, and to Tommie Jordan, the ability to wear bangs and to be sophisticated.

I, J. R. Ephraim, will my ability to get along with Mr. G. Rankin to Johnnie Maxey.

I, Anna Marie Chadwell, will my ability to meet important people and make lasting friendships to Joyce Clavell.

I, Grace Earl Carter, will my ability to stay awake in chapel to Selita Thomas.

I, Ola Mae Maxie, will Laura McDonald my 130 lbs., Maxine Gales my 22-inch waistline, and Bessie Hayes my 5'7" model height.

I, Mattie Mae Hunter, will to Rosa B. Campbell my nylon hairbrush.

I, Marian Jones, will to Lovie Jackson the ability to get a man and to get my lessons.

I, Dolores Browne, will to Ruth F. Evans my height.

I, Edna Rowe, will to Leroy Ponder my ability to lose my temper but control my head, and to some capable junior, my position in the Drill Corps.

I, Seretta Irene Hymes, willingly relinquish my position and affiliations in organizations to a competent member of the Junior Class, and I bequeath to Helen J. Cooper my ladylike manners.

I, Minola Dayton, will my ability to stay at Harris Barrett's School three months without having a nervous breakdown to Doris Crawford.

I, Doris Baccus, will my ability to be calm in any situation to Mary Cravin.

I, Geraldine Clausell, will to Eva Potts my ability to stay at Tuskegee four years with a clean record.

I, Alice Dizard, will to Ovie M. Phelps my seat in the Macon Theatre.

We do hereby constitute and appoint the said principal sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, we, the Class of 1948, the testators, have to this will set our hands and seals, this tenth of May, Anno Domini, One thousand, nine hundred and forty-eight.

VERA M. PLAXICO.
