AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

AN INVITATION TO ATTEND THE NINTH ANNUAL FARM AND HOME WEEK AND THE FIFTY-FIFTH ANNUAL FARMERS CONFERENCE

Ever changing economic conditions, new inventions and scientific improvements create social and economic problems that clearly indicate the growing need for farmers to meet, study, plan, and work together for a solution to these problems.

The Conference and Short Course theme for 1945 is: "BETTER RURAL LIVING FOR THE POSTWAR PERIOD." The very foundation for better rural living is good health, adequate farm income, family budgets, cooperative activity, land ownership and land use.

Cooperative effort must be given added emphasis if we are to enjoy better rural living in the Southern region. The man of the farm and the woman of the farm must each have a working knowledge and a sympathetic point of view towards the responsibility of the other if farming, in its broadest sense, is to be successful. There are separate problems that concern one more than the other, but out of the activities of each come problems that are common to both. This relationship is equally true of the church, the school, and the farm family. In the solution of the problems that concern these organizations, which should be undertaken jointly, there must be a knowledge, an appreciation and a sympathetic understanding of the special problems of the other.

We are, therefore, delighted to invite you to our 1945 Farmers Conference and Short Course to engage in discussions and practices which we feel confident will lead to better rural living.

TO THE PUBLIC

Funeral Services should also be comforting. We go far beyond the mere business of supplying every funeral requirement. The thoughtfulness of our staff and the completeness of our service, even at a minimum expenditure are comforting to the bereaved family. An increasing number of men and women with true foresight are making final plans for their last resting place, so that they need not be dependent on others to carry out their wishes. Perhaps you would like to do likewise. We shall be glad to talk things over with you right NOW!
