

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE

The Seventy-Ninth Annual Farmers Conference

JANUARY 14, 1970

Founded by
BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

THEME:
"Rural-Urban Development—The Key to Family and Community Improvement"

LOGAN HALL
Tuskegee Institute
Alabama

PROGRAM

Morning Session

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 1970

LOGAN HALL

Presiding: G. W. Taylor, Head

Department of Vocational and Technical Education

OPENING EXERCISE

9:15 a.m. Group Singing and Invocation
Reverend V. A. Edwards, Pastor
Greater Saint Mark Baptist Church

9:30 a.m. INTERVIEWS OF SELECTED INDIVIDUALS, FAMILIES AND RURAL INDUSTRIES

Interviewers:

1. Mr. W. E. Cooper
Special Supervisor
Agricultural Education
State Department of Education
2. Mr. Robert F. Jones
Rural Resource Management Specialist
Auburn, University
3. Mr. P. G. T. Balagun, Manager
SEASHA Feeder Pigs, Marketing and Management Corporation
4. Dr. W. B. Hill, Assistant to the Director
Auburn University Extension Service

11:30 a.m. ADDRESS—
Rev. E. James, Principal
Pittsview High School
Pittsview, Alabama

1:00 p.m.-2:00 p.m. DINNER—Institute Cafeteria
Mr. J. A. Walls
Mr. Freddie L. Richards

Afternoon Session

INSTITUTE CHAPEL

2:00 p.m.

Presiding: Dr. L. H. Foster, President
Tuskegee Institute

SPIRITUAL—Led by Mr. George Paris

INVOCATION—Rev. Andrew L. Johnson, Chaplain
Tuskegee Institute

SPIRITUAL—Led by Mr. George Paris

AWARDING CERTIFICATE TO MERIT FARM FAMILY

The James Frazier, Sr., Family

ADDRESS—Dr. Samuel Adams
Assistant Administrator for Africa Agency for International Development
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

SPIRITUAL—Led by Mr. George Paris

ADJOURNMENT